Mysuru, Oct. 14 (RK&DM)- With the Government sanctioning Rs. 89 crore for modernisation and repair of MMC&RI (Mysore Medical College and Research Institute) and its constituent Hospitals, global tenders will be invited in a couple of days for taking up works.

Hospital, Cheluvamba Hospital, PKTB Sanatorium on KRS road and renovation of Medical College Boys and Girls Hostel blocks.

According to MMC&RI Dean and Director Dr. K.R. Dakshayini, this is perhaps for the first time that the Government has sanctioned such a huge sum (Rs.89 crore) for restoration works of a Medical College and constituent Hospitals for upgradation of facilities and improvement of health care.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The other day, I was scrolling through news when something caught my attention: a YouTube video, comprising a father and son celebrating the purchase of a second-hand bicycle, had gathered millions of views. Well! What joy could a second-hand bicycle give, I thought but anyway watched the video.

The sheer delight on the child's face at his father doing puja to the old cycle was indeed captivating. The pride and joy on the child's face, as if his father had purchased an expensive car, was really touching. The little one jumped and clapped as his father beamed with happiness. That had me thinking.

It was my husband's senior colleague's 5-year-old's birthday. We were invited and a gift was mandatory. After much discussion, we settled for an expensive doll. The birthday party began and the child started hurriedly unwrapping all the gifts she had received, right in front of the guests.

The child then declared that none of the gifts were up to her liking, much to the embarrassment of her parents and the guests. The mother sheepishly informed us that her child finds real joy in playing with real fruits and vegetables. That was unusual for a child of five, I thought.

"Welcome small joys in life, Smile, breathe and go slowly," goes a Zen quote. How true!

Blind skateboarder does 50-50 grind

Michigan: Daniel Mancina, a blind skateboarder from Michigan broke a Guinness World Record when he performed a 50-50 grind on a rail for a distance of 22 feet and 5 inches.

35-year-old-man of Royal Oak, said he took up skateboarding at the age of 13, the same year he was diagnosed with retinitis pigmentosa. The condition affects the light-sensitive layer of tissue in the back of the eye and often leads to complete blindness.

Mancina said the condition's progress was slow at first, but he eventually determined he had lost too much of his sight to continue skateboarding.

Years later, Mancina said he decided to give skateboarding another try, despite having only minimal sight in one eye.

REALLY...?

- The Vedic period was the time duration between 1500 and 500 BCE. The garments worn in the Vedic period mainly included a single cloth wrapped around the whole body and draped over the shoulder. People used to wear the lower garment called paridhana which was pleated in front and used to tie with a belt called mekhala and an upper garment called uttariya (covered like a shawl) which they used to remove during summers. "Orthodox males and females usually wore the uttariya by throwing it over the left shoulder only, in the style called upavita".

Why pay toll after driving on bad Mysuru-Nanjangud Road?

Sir,

I visited Nanjangud the other day and was shocked to see the roads in such a pathetic condition. Many stretches are unmotorable, with craters and potholes all along the road. The entire stretch beyond the Mysuru city limits lack street-lights and hence driving during dark is very risky. Added to this is the shameless collection of toll by people who are deliberately oblivious of the condition of the road.

My car though had a Fastag with Rs.195 balance was asked to be parked aside alleging there is zero balance in the Fastag account and hence I should pay double the toll, which is Rs.110.

There are many people who do not travel beyond the city limits frequently. Making Fastag compulsory and in lieu of which people are penalised with double toll moreso for a road which lacks basic facilities, is nothing but harassment of tax-payers.

Is there any elected representative or official from the respective department to pay penalty for such pathetic roads that contribute to majority of accidents?

Citizens are expected to keep all documents of their vehicle up to date. This apart we are supposed to wear helmets and seatbelts to avoid accidents. Central Government is mulling a compulsory four-airbags rule in upcoming vehicles. All these are secondary, the primary need being better and illuminated roads.

Let the Government not hide its incapability inside helmets and airbags!

Body of girl student found in water sump

Tuition teacher arrested on charges of sexual assault, murder

Malavalli, Oct. 14- The case of 10-year-old girl, who left her house for tuition and her body found in a sump of an under-construction house on Mysuru Road in the town, has taken a twist and the Police investigations have revealed that the girl was sexually assaulted by her tuition teacher, murdered and the body dumped inside the water sump.

Accused Kantharaju

The accused tuition teacher is Kantharaju, who has been arrested by Malavalli Town Police. The Cops have booked a case against the teacher under Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, for sexual assault, murder and for trying to destroy evidence.

Details: On Oct. 11 at about 10.30 am, the girl, a student of a private school, left her home saying that she was going to the tuition centre to ask about the timing of the tuition but did not return even after 1 pm.

The girl's grandfather, who went to the tuition centre, enquired about her granddaughter with tuition teacher Kantharaju, who told that the girl had come and as she had not brought her books with her, he (Kantharaju) told the girl to go home and fetch her books. Kantharaju also questioned the girl's grandfather whether the girl had not come home and also tried to search for the girl.

The girl's grandfather then informed the Police about his granddaughter going missing and the Police, who went to the bakery near the tuition centre was checking the footages of the CCTV camera installed in the bakery during which they received an information about a body of a girl floating inside a water sump of an under-construction building near Lingegowda Building on Malavalli-Mysuru Road.

The Police and the girl's grandfather then rushed to the under-construction building and on looking inside the sump, they found the body of the missing girl floating inside.

On Oct. 11 at 7 pm, the girl's grandfather lodged a complaint stating that someone had murdered his granddaughter and dumped the body inside the water sump following which the Police registered a case against unknown person for murder and destroying evidence and took up the investigation.

The Police, who felt fishy on Kantharaju's behaviour and also based on footages captured by the bakery's CCTV camera, took Kantharaju into custody and subjected him to interrogation, during which Kantharaju is said to have confessed of sexually assaulting the girl and to destroy the evidence, he had dumped the body of the girl in the water sump of the under-construction building. Kantharaju is also said to have revealed that in order to make people not doubt on him, he joined with the girl's grandfather in searching for the girl.

As soon as the news of the tuition teacher sexually assaulting the girl and murdering her spread, the residents of the town expressed their anger on the tuition teacher. Thousands of people participated in the last rites of the girl in the town.

The Police again interrogated Kantharaju and conducted spot mahazar by taking him to the crime spots. The Police, who were awaiting the post-mortem report, began collecting evidences pertaining to the case and yesterday evening, based on the preliminary post-mortem report, booked a case under POCSO Act, named tuition teacher Kantharaju as the accused and formally arrested him.

Gang of four stabs youth with crime records to death near Boti Bazar

Mysuru, Oct. 14 (RK&KS)- A 25-year-old youth, accused in robbery and extortion cases, has been stabbed to death by a gang of four miscreants near Boti Bazar on Wednesday night.

Deceased is Sunil alias Dattu, a resident of Kumbarakoppal in city. Sources said that, before the murder took place, a fight had ensued between Sunil and four youths in front of a hotel and the Police, who were on their regular beat had dispersed the crowd.

Later, the gang stabbed Sunil and as he tried to run away from the spot, the gang reportedly chased him and stabbed him to death.

One of the miscreants has thrown the knife on the road and the blood stained knife has been seized by the Police. The murder is said to have taken place at about 11.30 pm and Devaraja Police, who rushed to the spot, conducted mahazar, registered a case and shifted the body to MMC&RI mortuary.

Deceased Sunil is accused in many robbery and extortion cases with majority of the cases against him booked in Devaraja Police Station, it is learnt. Police sources said that Sunil used to threaten the relatives and those accompanying patients to K.R. Hospital with a knife during nights and extort money and valuables from them.

Sunil, who was jailed in a case, had come out recently and the Police have suspected the gang, which had fought with Sunil in front of a hotel, of murdering him.

Devaraja Police, who have collected CCTV footages captured in the camera installed in the hotel, have launched a hunt to nab the killers. One of the suspects has been taken into custody and the Police are interrogating him.

Yamuna

The deceased woman has been identified as Yamuna (26), wife of Naveen alias Dakshinamurthy of Devanur village in the taluk. Naveen was rescued from the lake by the villagers.

Yamuna, daughter of Chandrappa of Siddaiahnahundi village in the taluk, was given in marriage to Naveen of Devanur two years ago. Yamuna, who was three months pregnant, was staying with her husband at a rented house near Vishwajyothi School at Ramaswamy Layout.

On Wednesday evening, the couple, who had purchased a new TV, was returning home on the bike via Yelachagere-Kasuvinahalli route. Naveen, who saw his wife drowning, began to scream for help and the villagers who rushed to his aid rescued him but Yamuna was not traceable. Meanwhile, Fire and Emergency Services personnel, who had launched a search in the lake, traced the body of Yamuna yesterday at about 10 am and fished the body out of the lake.

Will 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' by Sonia and Rahul Gandhi reverse the fortune of Congress in Mandya district?

Mandya, Oct.14 (Mohanraj&TRR)- Though the Congress party leaders and workers are buoyed by the success of the ongoing 'Bharat Jodo Yatra,' led by Rahul Gandhi and also joined by AICC President Sonia Gandhi, there is an intense discussion going on in political circles whether the success of the Yatra can revive the fortunes of the Congress party in Mandya district where the party had failed to win even a single seat in the 2018 Assembly elections.

'Bharat Jodo Yatra' in Mandya district witnessed huge success on the first day (Oct. 3) and the participation of Sonia Gandhi on the second day (Oct.6) further galvanised party workers who accompanied her in large numbers. Congress supremo's participation in the Yatra in Mandya district, perceived to be a stronghold of JD(S), has undoubtedly become a morale booster for the grand-old-party.

Mandya district was a stronghold of the Congress party, not long ago. Since BJP had no presence in the district, the fight was always between Congress and JD(S).

Over the years, the latter started gaining strength in the district and ultimately established complete supremacy. Now the Congress party, with the intention of regaining its past glory, has brought its President Sonia Gandhi to the district. However, it remains to be seen whether the party can actually gain from Sonia's participation in the rally.

Congress' good performance in 1999 elections

In the year 1999, S.M. Krishna, a native of Mandya district, was the Chief Minister (CM) of Karnataka. When elections for the State Assembly were held in the same year, CM Krishna launched his famous Panchajanya Yatra from Mandya and toured the entire State. In that election, the Congress party won 6 out of 9 Assembly seats in the district. Apart from CM's Maddur Constituency, Congress had won at Srirangapatna, K.R. Pet, Pandavapura, Mandya, Kirugaval Assembly Constituencies. But in subsequent elections, the party started losing its ground.

Since 2004 elections, Congress couldn't win more than two seats. In the 2004 polls, Congress performed very badly and won just two seats. Of the 9 seats, it could win only at Maddur and Keragodu.

The JD(S) performed much better defeating the Congress in 6 Constituencies thereby spreading its roots in the district and humbled Congress in its stronghold.

In the 2008 elections, Mandya district was limited to 7 Constituencies following delimitation of Constituencies. While Congress could win at Nagamangala and K.R. Pet, the JD(S) won four out of the remaining 5 seats.

Even in 2013 Assembly elections, Mandya and Malavalli were won by Congress and Melukote was won by an independent while other 4 seats were won by the JD(S). The Congress party recorded its worst performance in the district in the 2018 elections by losing all the 7 seats to the JD(S) by a huge margin of 40,000 to 55,000 votes.

But this time, the party is determined to win at least 4 seats in the district. District Congress leaders N. Cheluvarayaswamy and P.M. Narendraswamy ensured the participation of large number of party workers in the Mandya leg of 'Bharat Jodo Yatra.'

Now, it remains to be seen whether the recent impressive show of strength of the Congress party can turn into votes and reclaim Mandya district back into its fold.

Today, the Yatra is on its Ballari leg.

TRAVELOGUE

Ladakh: The dizzy heights -1

Travelogues are always a source of information that other travel literature or travel guides seldom provide. It captures the experiences unique to the traveller and invites others planning a visit to benefit from it. Here we publish a travelogue on Ladakh, one of the best tourist destinations in India at dizzying heights, by Ashvini Ranjan, who writes occasionally for Star of Mysore on various issues. Now read on... —Ed

By Ashvini Ranjan

Asking for a window seat on the plane if you are travelling to Ladakh, avoiding footwear with laces to enable frequent removal while visiting monasteries, carrying a hard copy of your boarding pass as a back-up when your phone battery is low etc. These and more can make your travel more enjoyable. I wish we knew that two-and-a-half hours is insufficient between two connecting flights in a big airport like Delhi. We almost missed our flight shuttling our luggage and complying with the airport security formalities. Last but not the least, a guide to fill you with stories of the natives adds life and colour to your visit.

Limited information

Ladakh is not the most visited or popular tourist destinations. Probably because of lack of adequate information. Some think that these are disturbed areas and not safe to visit. So much so, information of the place can be inaccurate and sometimes exaggerated. Like it happened in our case. Not at your age, said an acquaintance, you will develop high altitude sickness. The temperatures there is too cold, said another. Ladakh is at an altitude over ten thousand feet above sea level and as a consequence, has reduced oxygen levels. While such information is shared with best of intentions, how one feels visiting such places depends mainly on one's health and fitness. Being a mountainous area, it does involve some climbing. Particularly when visiting monasteries which are located at elevated places. Our travel advisor put all the doubts to rest and assured us that we were fit to undertake the trip.

Weather and sights

Ladakh is at a height of 10,682 feet above sea level as against Mysuru's 2,530 feet. It does get nippy to cold at night depending upon which place you are visiting and at which altitude. Heights can vary from ten thousand feet to seventeen thousand feet above sea level. Now having returned without a facing a problem, I dare say don't miss an opportunity to travel there. The breathtaking landscapes, the crystal clear lakes, high mountain passes etc. Besides, Ladakh is particularly known for Buddhist Monasteries, colourful festivals, blue lakes, towering snow-capped mountain, the cold desert. Ladakh has it all. Insist on a window seat if you are travelling by air. The views from the plane's window are simply amazing.

On arrival

Leh's Rimpochee airport reminds you of Mysuru's airport when it was commissioned a few years ago. It is tiny. The size of Leh's airport is also an indication of the number of visitors. Seven flights land and take off as against 700 of Bengaluru airport a day. On landing at Leh, I did feel like taking deeper breath probably to compensate for the reduced level of oxygen. We were advised to drink water at regular intervals. Not to physically exert ourself by rushing or lifting weights. I was also told that the airport keeps oxygen cylinders for those rare cases when people feel sick. I was cautioned not to click photos for security reasons as Indian Air Force too shares the airport for its operations. No matter how many places you have visited around the world, that little anxiety of the new place is always there. Most importantly about the person who is supposed to meet you on arrival.

Our guide

The smile on Dorji Namgyal's face was as wide as the name card he held in his hands when he saw me waving my hand. Within the next few minutes, I was happy about the efforts I had made with my travel agent to assign me a good guide. Namgyal truly was tailor-made. Spoke fairly good English with a dash of Hindi thrown in. Well-informed and well-mannered gentle six footer. He is as tall as the mountains, quipped my wife Shashi accompanying me. He seemed to have a standard list of information of dos and dont's to a visitor. You need to rest and allow your body to get acclimatised for a day sir, he said. Keep sipping water and insisted that we do not venture out during this time as we drove to the hotel fifteen minutes away from the airport. In contrast to the greenery in the Leh city which is located on the Valley floor, the surrounding mountains are bare and stark brown with almost no vegetation. Most of the mountains have some snow on the peaks even during the Ladakhi summer. For a first time visitor, the scenery all round is stunning.

Ladakhi landscape.

Our visit was for a duration of seven nights and eight days. Before we set off to seeing places of tourist interest the following morning, Namgyal asked me what would interest me apart from site visits. This surprised me. Most guides will just follow the fixed itinerary. Since we were only two and not a group tour, we had the flexibility in our travel plans. He also realised that I had read up sufficiently like I always do before a trip, he seemed pleased. I told him that besides tourist spots, I would also like to know about local customs, stories, religion, heroes, education etc. Seeing me carry my cameras and tripod, he added photography to the list.

A room with a view

There are plenty of hotels in Leh that fits every budget. Foodwise, every possible cuisine is available and for vegetarians, they will get to taste vegetables truly fresh and crisp. In fact it tastes better. Not to forget, Ladakh is a land where majority are Buddhists and they do not eat meat. Ladakh is a Union Territory. Leh and Kargil are the biggest cities and the population is approximately three lakhs only, making it the least populous place in the country, said Namgyal. I could not help thinking that one extension of Bengaluru has more population than of entire Ladakh. Our hotel room had a view of the snow-capped mountains and also of the town. One could see coloured prayer flags strung across trees and lamp posts fluttering in the wind. The continuous melting of snow formed rivulets feeding rivers below. Looking at the high rocky mountains, one cannot help wondering how man and animal survived in such conditions for centuries. Early man had found ways to trek across on horse, yaks and camel back in search not just of food alone, but also to trade and new territories to conquer. The famous Silk Route passed through these ravines.

Modernisation of MMC&RI Hospitals

After identifying the fourteen blocks and buildings that needed repair and renovation, a DPR (Detailed Project Report) was submitted to the Government when Dr. H.S. Dinesh was Dean and Director of MMC&RI earlier this year. The DPR, which also included the cost of the works, was prepared with the help of PWD Department engineers who made a thorough inspection of buildings of MMC&RI and its attached hospitals, which also have a high heritage value.

Later, MP Pratap Simha, MLA L. Nagendra and other elected representatives held a couple of meetings with MMC&RI authorities and made repeated representations to the Government for DPR approval and sanction of funds as estimated by the PWD, following which the Government sanctioned Rs.89 crore for the same in March this year.

Dr. K.R. Dakshayini

Dr. H.S. Dinesh

Thanks to the persistent efforts of MP Pratap Simha, MLA Nagendra, previous MMC&RI Dean and Director Dr. Dinesh, current Dean and Director Dr. Dakshayini and other elected representatives, the global tender process is now all set to commence in a couple of days and the works are expected to start in a month.

With this, it can be said that the MMC&RI has geared up to celebrate its centenary celebrations in 2024, in a purposeful manner by providing better health care to the people with upgraded facilities.

City of Circles

Over seven new Circles on cards; Al-Badr Circle, Fountain Circle re-conceptualised

Architect's impression of the new Al-Badr Circle.

Works under progress at Al-Badr Circle.

Mysuru, Oct. 14 (GA&BCT)- With innumerable wide and beautiful Circles, Mysuru can be called a City of Circles. Every junction where two to six roads meet have huge Circles in the centre and traffic would automatically go round these Circles. And every Circle has its own characteristics, gardens and lamp-posts.

With an aim to further beautify the city to attract more and more visitors, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) has taken up the beautification of certain old Circles and construct seven more new Circles. These Circles are being re-conceptualised and funds have been released from the MCC, State Government and local Corporator funds and the occasion is the 75th year of Independence.

Works have already been taken up to beautify certain existing Circles. The Al-Badr Circle in Rajeevnagar Second Stage is being redesigned artistically with an estimated cost of Rs. 2.47 crore. A Bengaluru-based firm has bagged the contract and begun works.

As part of the beautification, a pedestal that will rise up to 25-ft is being constructed. It will have an attractive fountain, interlocking tiles pathway and once constructed, the Circle will be tastefully illuminated.

Revised estimate

Speaking to Star of Mysore on the Circle beautification, former Mayor and current area Corporator Ayub Khan said that a Bengaluru-based architect has designed the Circle and a blueprint has been prepared. "The funds for the project have been released out of my Corporator grants and the initial estimate was Rs. 2.47 crore," he said.

Expenses will go up to Rs. 3 crore as many underground pipelines at the Circle location have been relocated and this took most part of the work. Fresh wiring work is being done underground. "At present, we are looking for attractive tiles to be placed around the Circle. We are aiming to complete the works within three months and will be dedicated to the city by the end of January," Ayub Khan added.

Retaining originality

MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy told SOM that while certain Circles are being beautified without damaging its original shape, new Circles will be built at certain areas.

"This year, the Council has decided to build new Circles at Vivekananda Circle, Siddaganga Swamiji Circle on Vishwamanava Double Road, Jayadeva Hospital Junction Road on KRS Road, Ayurveda Hospital Road and the Circle near St. Philomena's Church. Bengaluru-based architects have been hired for some Circles and some of the Circles have been handed over to Mysuru-based architects," he added.

Fountain Circle

Another Circle that is being beautified is the Fountain Circle at the entrance of Mysuru City from Bengaluru side. The MCC is planning to beautify this Circle by retaining its original shape with an estimated cost of Rs. 1.20 crore. "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav" message will be reflected in the Circle and Kannada number 75 will be embossed in golden colour against a white background," said Corporator Mohammad Rafiq.

He added that as the Circle is seen by thousands of people coming from Bengaluru every day, it will be made attractive to remain etched in the memory. MCC's general grant of Rs. 50 lakh has been utilised for the project and MCC Commissioner will grant Rs. 30 lakh for it. The process of tender is on and works will begin soon after the tenders are allotted, Rafiq added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Spiel

Pronunciation: SPEEL.
Meaning: A spiel is a fast speech—often one that has been rehearsed or given before—that is usually intended to get someone to buy something or to agree to something.
Origin: Here's our spiel on spiel: it's well-known as a noun, and you may also be aware that spiel can be used as a verb meaning "to talk extravagantly," but did you know that the verb can also mean "to play music"? That, in fact, is the word's original meaning, and one it shares with its German root, spielen. (Spiel is also found in glockenspiel, the name of a musical instrument similar to the xylophone.) In Scottish English, spiel is also sometimes used as a shortened form of bonspiel, which refers to a match or tournament of the icy game of curling.
Example: "In the blue room, Third Man's concert venue, [Bob] Weir and his band Wolf Bros preached between songs. The bassist, Don Was, who is also the head of the legendary jazz label Blue Note Records, gave a spiel about the glory of 'authentic,' Auto-Tune-free music." — Spencer Kornhaber

THE ODD WORD

Saginate

To fatten animals.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Snail mail

Meaning: The phrase 'Snail Mail' (or 'Smail') refers to mail that was carried by the traditional postal delivery service.
Origin: The phrase refers to the long time it takes mail to reach its destination from the moment it's sent, as the slow pace of a snail. The first recorded use of the phrase was in a 1942 article posted in the Lowell Sun, however, not until it was common to use emails to transfer messages and information in the early 1990s, the slowness of conventional mail was so blunt.
Example: Daria –"I didn't get your wedding invitation yet and the wedding is in 3 days." Ruth – "Well, I guess that's why it's called Snail Mail, cause I've mailed the invitations 2 weeks ago and they still haven't arrived, though we live in the same city."
